Pope Is Reported Not Seriously Ill

Doctor Says Fatigue Caused By Overwork

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII is suffering from fatigue caused by overwork but his condition is not causing serious concern, his private physician said today after visiting the pontiff.

Despite his fatigue, the Pope prepared to receive and address a medical conference at his summer residence at Castel Gandolfo.

His physician, Prof. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi, described the pontiff's condition simply as fatigue due to a renewed heavy burden of work and denied he had had any recurrence of the hiccup that weakened him dangerously during his grave illness early this year.

The Pope's physician denied also reports that the Swiss specialist, Dr. Paul Niehans, who attended the Pope in January and February, was again in Rome to help care for him.

The Pope's physician said that Dr. Niehans is in Switzerland.

His doctor's visit this morning to the 78-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church was described as a normal and regular visit.

H. W. Hoover Of Sweeper Firm, Succumbs

CANTON — Herbert W. Hoover, 77-year-old pioneer in the vacuum cleaner industry, died yesterday.

Hoover developed the vacuum sweeper into a $51,712,000 annual business from a simple, homemade device invented by an aged janitor whose asthma kicked up when he used a broom in a dry-goods store.

A son, H. W. Jr., became company president last year.

Mr. Hoover had been at his office daily until three months ago when he was stricken with two heart attacks and a stroke.

Mr. Hoover was born at suburban North Canton, Oct. 30, 1877, the eldest son of William Henry Hoover, a manufacturer of leather goods.

The first cleaners were made in a corner of the leather shop. The firm expanded rapidly.

He was director of the George D. Harder Bank here, chairman of the board of the North Canton community building and of the trustees association of the North Canton Library. He also was a member of the board of the Canton Welfare Federation. He was chairman of the board of the North Canton Community Christian Church.

His wife, the former Grace Louise Steele, died in 1949.

Two sons, W. H. Jr., and James Clay Hoover, sales research manager for the midwestern division at Chicago; two daughters, Mrs. L. E. Connelly and Mrs. Scott Hill of Canton; his brother, Frank G., former president and a member of the board of directors, and a sister, Mrs. H. C. Price of North Canton, survive.

Private services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the North Canton Community Church.

PLAN 'BOOSTER NIGHT'

Booster Night will be observed tonight at Goshen Grange. Albert Capel, lecturer, will be in charge of the special program. All are welcome to attend this open meeting at 8:30 p.m. in the grange hall.

U. S. Set To Halt Fight Tuesday By Red China To Get Into U. N.

Five Suspended For Misuse Of Welfare Funds

NEW YORK (AP)—A directive by CIO President Walter P. Reuther has resulted in the suspension of six union officials following testimony in a state probe of union welfare funds.

Reuther yesterday ordered "prompt remedial action" against a half dozen top officers of the Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union (RWDSU), adding that the CIO "cannot and will not tolerate crooks or Communists in the labor movement."

Carrying out his chief's order, Max Greenberg, international president of the RWDSU, appointed administrators to audit the books of the five locals involved.

The six men had admitted to state investigators they used welfare funds to provide themselves with high salaries and expense accounts, lavish vacations, automobiles and other special benefits.

Greenberg said he hopes "the public realizes" that the five locals involved have a total of about 3,000 members compared with a general union membership of more than 60,000.

Officials suspended from the RWDSU are:

Joseph Procopio, an international vice president of the store union; Samuel Rosenzweig, president of Local 923, the United Culinary Bar and Grill Employees; Robert M. Stanlee, president of Local 394, Auto Parts, Tire, and Accessory Employees; Ernest J. Dumas, president of Local 377, United Service Employees; and Michael Werner and Michael Sakman, president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of Local 1115, Restaurant, Luncheonette and Soft Drink Employees.

Educators To Discuss School Health Program

LISBON — "Providing a better school health program for 1954-55" will be discussed by members of Boards of Education from Columbiana County rural schools and County Health Board members at a special meeting Sept. 27 at 8 p.m. at the Courthouse.

Initial plans were made Thursday at a conference between Dr. George Pantera, health commissioner, and J. L. McBride, school superintendent.

McBride said most school boards have a desire to have their health programs supervised by the County Health Department, despite the fact that many have their own school nurses.

A committee from the General Health District Advisory Council also is expected to attend.

fruitless attempts by the Communists to unseat Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist delegates, will be to avoid a showdown vote on the issue. Instead, the fight is planned on a move to defer action.

A quick settlement of the perennial question would clear the way for policy statements next week and thus free Secretary of State Dulles in plenty of time for the proposed meeting in late September of nine countries on the question of German sovereignty and rearmament.

Dulles, now visiting Europe to confer with German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, has announced plans to attend the opening session Tuesday of the U.N. General Assembly, meeting at New York City. He will address the 60-nation assembly, probably Thursday.

America's new U.N. delegation, headed by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., was called to the State Department today for swearing in exercises.

The five representatives and five alternates were briefed yesterday by State Department officials on what to expect. The usual attempt by Communist China to gain the sea now held by Nationalist China was forecast as the probable first clash between the free world and the Communists.

Red China's persistent attempts to win U.N. standing have resulted in 150 failures, counting committees of the U.N. Assembly as well as four tries in vain at each of the past four full sessions of the Assembly itself.

Members of this country's U.N. delegation, with Lodge as chairman, are Sens. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) and J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), C. D. Jackson of New York City and Charles H. Mahoney of Detroit.

Alternate representatives: James Phillip Nash of Austin, Tex.; Ade M. Johnson of Tacoma, Wash.; Roger W. Straus and Mrs. Oswald B. Lord, both of New York City, and career diplomat James J. Wadsworth, who is deputy to Lodge.

$3,372 Is Collected In County Polio Drive

A total of $3,372 was collected in a current emergency March of Dimes campaign in Columbiana County to bolster the fight against polio, according to John Litty, county co-chairman.

The drive, which closed Thursday, was part of the national campaign to raise $20 million to help finance the large scale polio vaccine treatment of school children and for more research, Litty said.

He said he and co-chairman Don Shay of East Liverpool, mailed 2,500 letters to solicit funds.

Bridge On Route 165 Will Be Replaced

Construction of a new bridge on Route 165 east of the Rt. 62 intersection in Green Township was announced today by the state highway department.

Contract for the erection of the bridge, to replace a narrow span, was let to Earl H. Newell & Sons of Columbiana on a low bid of $51,764.

The improvement also calls for the resurfacing of approaches to the bridge over the Middle Fork of Little Beaver Creek. Completion date for the job is Aug. 31, 1955.

Nixon Warns Of Returning U. S. To 'Trumanism'

Lauds Administration Program of Integrity, Firmness, Moderation

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Vice President Nixon says the November election poses an alternative of continuing the present administration's program of "integrity, firmness and moderation" or restoring "discredited Trumanism."

Speaking in President Eisenhower's home state, Nixon declared last night:

"In 1952, when 34 million Americans rejected it, Trumanism meant hopeless inability to deal with the four-headed monster that was Korea, communism, corruption and controls."

"Deficit financing and inflation go clammy hand-in-hand."

Cites Stevenson, ADA

"That's what Trumanism means. That's what his followers including Mr. Stevenson (1952 Democratic presidential nominee) and his left-wing ADA (Americans for Democratic Action) mouthpieces want. To achieve this goal, they must have a Democrat 84th Congress—controlled by their clique."

The vice president told more than 3,000 persons gathered in the Wichita Forum, a municipal building, that the GOP administration "is a clean-up, not a cover-up administration."

"The honesty of the President permeates our government from top to bottom," he added. "The President and his administrative leaders are dedicated people. . . . They deserve the kind of Congress that will support them."

Nixon Tours Country

Nixon is touring the country, boosting the election of Republican senatorial and congressional candidates in November.

He planned a stop at Pittsburg, Kan., today and then will move into southern Missouri.

He told his Wichita audience "a return to Trumanism would bring at least an 11 billion dollar deficit . . . about $150 for every U.S. taxpayer."

Democratic administrations gave America 14 of its 15 tax boosts since 1913, he said, and decreased the personal exemptions of the "little man" from $1,500 to $500.

"I say, and the record proves it, that if the little man, or the medium sized man or any sized man wants a decent tax break, only the Eisenhower administration and a Republican 84th Congress are prepared to give it," the vice president said.

"It took the Republican 83rd Congress to give us the first long range tax cut and revision bill in our country."

Earlier Nixon spoke at Topeka, the state capital. He said Wednesday's modification of government restrictions on use of acreage diverted from surplus crops "has a tendency to pull the rug out from under the Democrats on this issue." The Democrats, he said, had looked upon the original crop control order as a blow to farmers.

TELLS OF LOANS — Maurice Bauman, 30, a Champaign, Ill., real estate operator, testifies in Chicago that he obtained about $100,000 in government loans, for home improvements on property which was non-existent in many cases. Bauman appeared before a hearing of Senate Banking Committee which is investigating Federal Housing Administration operations.

Economic Issue Seen Election Key

Democrats Count On Control Of Congress

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Democratic leaders made it clear today they are counting heavily on what they described as economic discontent among the voters to gain control of Congress for their party in November.

National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell said in advance of a scheduled closed meeting of the party's national committee that he thinks the country's economic situation "is the basic issue" on which the voters will decide between Republicans and Democrats.

"The disappointment and disillusionment of the voters in the Eisenhower administration is widespread," Mitchell said in an interview. "But I think economics is the basic issue in this campaign."

Similarly, Paul Butler, Indiana state Democratic chairman, who said he is "available" for Mitchell's job when the latter steps down after the election, said that "secu-

Three Persons Hurt In Traffic Mishap

Three persons were brought to Salem City Hospital following one of two area traffic mishaps investigated by state highway patrolmen Thursday.

A car driven by Kent Mitchell, 34, of Cleveland left the road and struck a tree on Route 14, two miles east of Columbiana, at 9:30 p.m.

A passenger in the car, Lois Coughlin, 22, of Pittsburgh, sustained a possible fracture of the right leg, lacerations of the left knee and multiple facial lacerations and was admitted to the hospital. Another passenger, Carol Coughlin, 4, was admitted for observation.

Mitchell received lacerations of the scalp, forehead and arms and contusions of the chest and was treated and released.

Patrolmen reported that a car driven by Carl Muranzl, 39, of Alliance left the road and went into a ditch on Route 9 at 10 p.m.

Colleges To Keep Ex-Communist On Its Faculty

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio (AP)—Fine arts Prof. Robert M. Metcalf will remain on the faculty of Antioch College despite his admission that he once was a Communist.

College officials released a statement yesterday saying Metcalf's position on the faculty will not change.

President Samuel B. Gould made the announcement after a meeting of college officials.

The statement said in part that Metcalf's "loyalty to the American government and to Antioch College has never been questioned." And, it continued, he "ended his affiliation (with the Communist Party) quickly after seeing that his first action was an error of judgment."

Prof. Metcalf appeared before a subcommittee of the House Un-American Activities Committee at Dayton Wednesday. He said he had been a member of the Communist Party for a short time late in 1945. He told the committee he belonged to a Marxist study group at Antioch shortly after joining the faculty that year.

He testified he quit the group in 1946 and has not been associated with the Communist Party since. Nor, he said, does he believe there have since been any study groups such as the one he belonged to on the campus.

Care Of Foster Youth Costs County Little

SALINEVILLE — Columbiana County's 260 foster children are being supported for less money per child than in any county in Ohio, Rigby Mast, county welfare director, told the Salineville Ruritan Club Thursday night at the United Presbyterian Church.

"It costs county taxpayers an average of $19.05 a year to support each child," Mast said. This includes food, clothing, medical care, and administrative expense. He credited the low yearly rate to the interest county persons have shown in caring for underprivileged children.

Attorney Warren Bettis, president appointed ten committee chairmen for the coming year.

Man Reports $500 Stolen While He Slept

Clyde V. Williams of Highland Ave. reported to police this morning the theft of about $500 which he said was stolen from his pocket while he slept at the Metzger Hotel last night.

A man whom Williams had met earlier in a tavern is being held by police on a charge of intoxication and suspicion. Williams also said his pocketknife was missing. The victim reported that when he awoke this morning his billfold was gone and so was the other man.

Lamb Befriended Reds, Agent Says

Informers Recalled At Publisher's Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—A government witness who says he heard publisher-broadcaster Edward Lamb called a "very good friend of the Communist Party" 10 years ago was called today for his third day of testimony at a communications commission hearing.

The witness, William G. Cummings, 43, Toledo, Ohio, describes himself as a former FBI informer in Communist ranks.

The commission is conducting the hearing on Lamb, publisher of the Erie, Pa. Dispatch and owner of radio and television stations in Pennsylvania, Florida and Ohio, to test allegations that Lamb formerly associated with Communists and contributed to party fund drives.

Lamb, whose home is in Toledo, has repeatedly denied this, and has countered that commission investigators tried to induce witnesses to testify falsely against him, even

Couple's Golden Dream Turns Gray

MT. PLEASANT, Mich. (AP)—The golden hue in the rainbow of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deibel is turning a nickel gray.

The nickel shower that television comedian Gary Moore started still is falling on them and they're happy about it. But with considerably more than half an estimated 105,000 letters emptied their pot totals $5,907.48.

Once townfolk and the Deibels talked about a possible "fabulous fortune" that would bring a new home, a pipe organ, a new car and an educational trust fund for Deibel's two children.

Postmaster Raymond Hooker estimated today's mail brought 18,000 letters in response to Moore's suggestion a week ago that his viewers send the 26-year-old couple a nickel apiece and make them rich.

Moore originated the idea to dramatize a dislike for programs that "exploit human misery." Mrs. Deibel, vacationing with her husband, was called from his audience by Moore, who said he "liked her face." She said she was satisfied with her modest life as the wife of an appliance salesman. Moore then suggested the nickel shower to make the Deibels "rich" anyway.

'One Of A Type Of A-Weapons' Exploded As Test

Russians Say Red Scientists Learn Lessons On Defense

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union announced today it has exploded "one of a type of atomic weapons" with "valuable results."

The brief announcement by the official news agency Tass said the test "will enable Soviet scientists and engineers to solve successfully problem of defense from atomic attack."

Tass gave no details on where the explosion took place or what type of weapon was involved.

The announcement said:

"In accordance with the plan for scientific research work, trials of one of a type of atomic weapons were carried out in the Soviet Union during recent days."

'Study of Explosion'

"The aim of the trial was the study of an atomic explosion."

"The trials produced valuable results, which will enable Soviet scientists and engineers to solve successfully problems of defense from atomic attack."

In Tokyo, the Kyodo New Service reported that the meteorological laboratory of Kyoto University had recorded unusual instrument readings Aug. 26 similar to those observed when the United States made atomic tests at the Bikini Atoll.

Kyodo said a student at the laboratory reported a laboratory manometer, or pressure gauge, gave the readings on that date at 8 a.m. (Japan time) and again at 1 p.m.

There was no immediate reaction to the Russian announcement from American officials.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, with President Eisenhower at his Fraser, Colo., vacation spot, said the President had been notified. Hagerty added that any comment would have to come from the Atomic Energy Commission.

No Statement To Make

Lewis L. Strauss, the commission's chairman, said in New York City he had no statement to make. The State Department likewise refused comment.

Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, said at Hammondsport, N.Y.:

"I feel that at the present I should confine my remarks to raising the question 'Do we need any further evidence of the real intent of the Soviets toward world conquest?'"

Today's communique from Moscow was the first official word in a year on atomic tests inside Russia.

In August, 1953, the Russians claimed that in a series of tests they had touched off a hydrogen bomb explosion of great strength. The AEC confirmed that the blasts involved both fission (atomic) and thermonuclear reactions—the latter a term used by scientists to describe a hydrogen explosion.

Yeggs' Equipment Left Here Stolen In Niles

The oxygen tank, acetylene tank and other paraphernalia left behind by yeggs in the futile attempt to open the McCulloch Store safe Wednesday night were identified by police Thursday as having been stolen from a garage in Niles.

Police also reported the recovery Thursday of an acetylene tank, a torch and hose which had been stolen from the Metal-Wood Manufacturing Co., 969 W. Wilson St., Sept. 9. The equipment was found abandoned on Chestnut Grove Road, about 50 yards east of S. Lincoln Ave.

U.S. To Increase Defense Output

Business To Get Nudge Upward

NEW YORK (AP)—Business gets a pretty good view of its prospects in coming months in the mirror held up today by the U.S. budget.

1. Gross profits are down—and apparently Washington puts little faith in their improving very much before next summer.

2. The government's purse strings are being loosened deliberately to give business a nudge—the treasury will pay out more of the non-defense items, such as roads, housing, shipbuilding, loans to farmers, than it originally planned; and defense contracts this fiscal year will be handed out in twice the volume of last year.

3. The treasury's "cash budget," instead of being balanced as originally planned, will run two billion dollars in the red—meaning Washington will pump that much more money into the economy than it will be taking out in taxes.

Economists will argue whether this will be an inflationary job in the arm for business or whether it will act merely as a sedative.

But businessmen get a preview of what the government plans to do—unless, of course, signals are changed after the election.

The nudge for business is going to cost more than the treasury first thought, in spite of a notable saving in over-all defense spending.

But the real setback that is sending the treasury deficit well above earlier estimates comes from Uncle Sam's being a full-time partner in business profits.

He gets a little more than half of the gross earnings. And when they drop it hurts him more than it does the stockholders.

That shows up clearly in the earnings reports of corporations this year. While many companies did better than a year ago, the majority show a drop in gross earnings, reflecting the general setback in business activity.

They also show striking savings in tax payments. In many instances, this came about from the end of the excise profits tax. But also it reflects the fact that when sales slide off and gross earnings drop, the first to feel it is the U. S. Treasury.

So great have been the tax savings of some companies this year that their net profit after taxes has been down hardly any—in a few cases has even risen. This has UNEXPECTED VOYAGE—Eugene Hart, 11, receives a playful spanking from his mother after he returned to New York City from Europe aboard the liner United States. let most firms maintain their dividend payments to the stockholders, and in some cases to increase them.

The treasury, on the other hand, now expects to take in almost three billion dollars less in corporate income taxes than it did last fiscal year.

The drop in business activity since the first of the year, and present prospects for the rest of this year, leads the treasury to lower its expectations by almost two billion dollars from what it first thought in January.

Its expectations for collections from individuals are about the same as at the first of the year, but 2½ billion below last year's personal income tax take, due mainly to a cut in the rates.

Because it now expects receipts from business to be even lower than it thought earlier, the treasury estimates it will run two billion dollars in the red on its "cash budget"—its actual receipts and expenditures, including the in-and-out flow of cash from the various trust funds, such as social security.

The government will have to borrow more money—much of it probably in the form of tax anticipation certificates, so that it can stay within the federal debt limit. It may have to ask the next Congress to raise that limit again.

Perry Grange Plans Coverdish Supper

Garments made this year by members of the two Stitch and Chatter 4-H Clubs were displayed in a style review at the Wednesday night meeting of Perry Grange.

Also on the program, which opened with group singing, were two accordion selections by Marcella Volpe and an acrobatic act by Peggy Newhouse.

Beginning Oct. 6, grange meetings will start at 8 p.m. Booster Night will be observed Sept. 29 at 7 p.m. with a coverdish supper followed by a program and dancing. Rolls and coffee will be furnished.

The county prince and princess will be crowned at the Youth Banquet Sept. 28 at Guilford Grange. Mrs. Robert Wilde Jr. will serve as juvenile matron for the coming year. Her assistant will be Mrs. Richard Tullis.

At the juvenile meeting, birthdays in July, August and September were celebrated and gifts were presented by Betty McCartney, Carol Spencer and Carol Hawkins.

White Bibles were presented to Carol Hawkins, Beverly Hilliard and Denise Duke for their perfect attendance during the past year. Betty McCartney received a prize for a "hole in one" game Saturday, the juveniles will plant two trees at Perry Grange Hall and Saturday, Sept. 25, the group will be guests at the Guilford Grange meeting.

Lisbon Club Hears Debate On Red China

LISBON — A Salem lawyer declared Thursday the United States and other free countries, by shutting out Red China from the United Nations, are promoting a diplomatic romance between her and Russia.

Attorney Bryce Kendall, in a panel discussion at the weekly Kiwanis meeting, stated, "We are encouraging a union of Russia and Red China by not recognizing her and giving her a seat in the U.N."

William Halfley, opposing Kendall, argued, "Co-existence with Communism has been tried before, but one by one, the countries who followed were swallowed up." He said there has been no indication that the free world can reason with Communistic countries.

Kendall, in supporting his side of the debate, foresees the possibility of another Titoism in Red China, with the Mao regime eventually severing relations with the Soviets. "We should attempt to bring the Red Chinese to see our point of view," he said.

"Since the diplomatic strategy of the Russians is to divide the free world, to create depression and to flood the world markets with cheap products, we are playing into their hands when we allow friction to develop between England and America over the admission of China to the U.N," Kendall declared.

Halfley, Firestone Bank teller, said the UN was designed for peace-seeking nations, and "by no stretch of the imagination can Red China be called peace-loving."

Ross Ludwig served as moderator.

Two Men Rob Grill Of About $40,000

DATON, Ohio (AP)—Two conservatively dressed, middle-aged men sat quietly last night at the bar of the Huston Grill in nearby Moraine City.

At just about midnight, they drew guns, forced four employees to lie on the floor, scooped between $35,000 and $40,000 from the till and fled in a red convertible.

The grill had the money on hand to cash payroll checks for workers at the nearby Frigidaire plant of General Motors. As second shift employees began arriving at the jail.

grill, police said, the gunmen lined them up against the wall while they emptied the cash register.

The state highway patrol and county officers set up road blocks hoping to head them off.

Driver's Aim With Beer Can Costs Him $7.50

WAGONER, Okla. (AP)—A Clarksville, Ark., motorist had too good an aim. It cost him $7.50 and a jail sentence.

Driving along U.S. 60, the motorist tossed out a beer can and it hit a passing vehicle, an unmarked highway patrol car.

The judge fined the driver and sentenced him to three days in jail.

Crawford Lists PTO Committee

200 Tour School, Hear Band Concert

COLUMBIANA — President Eugene Crawford of the Parent Teacher Organization appointed committees for the school year at the September meeting in the High School auditorium Tuesday evening. The 200 in attendance toured the building and heard a concert by the High School band.

Committee chairmen for the year are: Rev. Donald J. Voelm, program; Mrs. L. A. Way, projects; Mrs. K. P. Murphy, music; Mrs. W. G. Gloss, health; Mrs. William Arbuckle, social;

Mrs. Homer Stahl and Mrs. Alice O'Neil, representatives to board of education; faculty representatives, Mrs. Paul Young and Mrs. Fred Liston; Paul Young, publicity; Mrs. Harry Keyor, attendance; and Mrs. Alice Bierley, sesqui-centennial.

Beginning at 7:30, preceding the meeting, members of the organization were conducted at intervals on tours of the re-decorated and repainted interior of the building. They were greeted by the teachers in their respective rooms, where they saw some of the work of the pupils. Refreshments were served in the home economics room at the end of each tour.

Following the tours, a concert by the High School Band in the auditorium from 8:15 to 8:45 preceded the business meeting. Beyond the president's announcement of committees, no special business was transacted.

LADIES AUXILIARY of Firestone American Legion Post has exceeded its membership quota of 140 with 153 paid up members. At its meeting Wednesday evening, the auxiliary initiated 11 juniors and seven adults.

More initiations are scheduled for the next meeting, Wednesday evening, Oct. 20, a number of recruits having been unable to be present because of conflicting dates.

The 10th Ohio district fall conference will be held at Wooster next Tuesday, Sept. 21, and Columbiana County Council will meet at North Georgetown that evening.

Persons desiring transportation to the Wooster conference may contact Mrs. James Horton, president of Firestone Auxiliary, Mrs. Irene Sheets will arrange transportation to North Georgetown.

Waldo Ward of Columbiana High School faculty received his master's degree at Kent State University recently. He has been a teacher here since 1930, and is Columbiana High track coach.

KELLEY-MEYER CO. of Youngstown is preparing to start the work of resurfacing the public square as part of its job of resurfacing for the State Highway Department Columbiana streets that carry the traffic of Route 164.

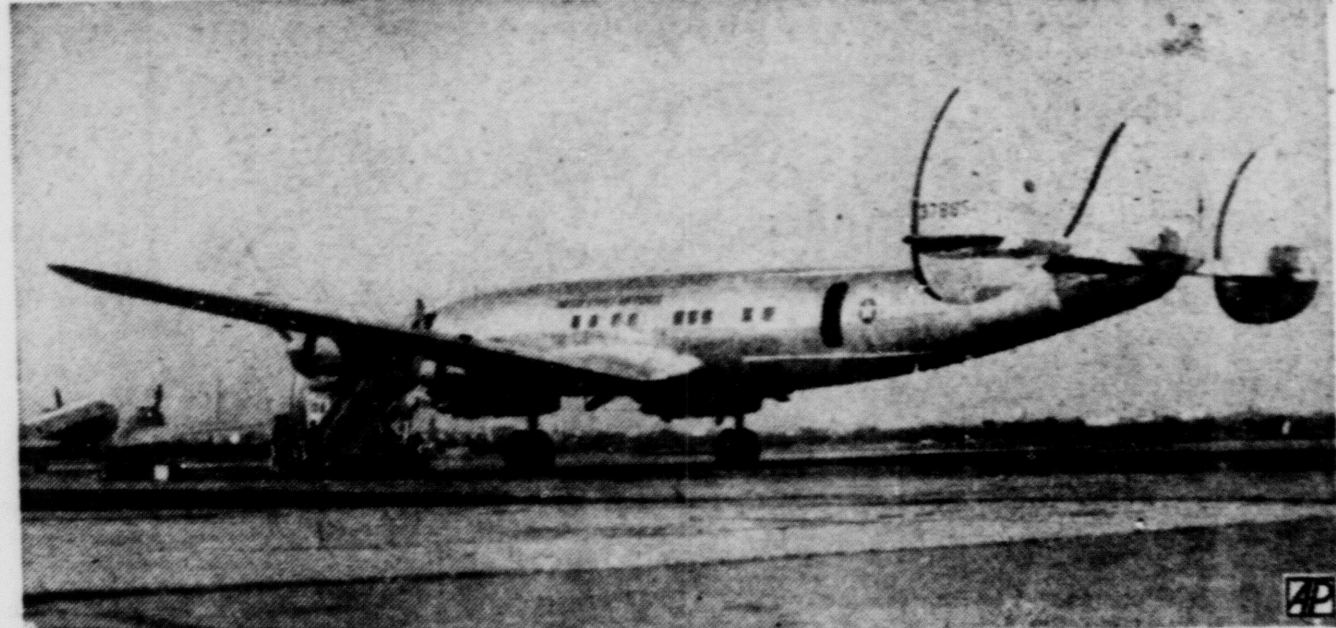

Reservations must be made not later than tomorrow for the bus trip of members of the ground observer corps to the Youngstown jet air base Saturday, Sept. 25. The special bus will load in front of the Methodist Church and leave at 8:30 a.m.

Tag night to be observed by the High School Band at the Columbiana - Poland football game this evening is for the fund for new instruments and music.

Woman's Premonition Saves Family's Life

BIGGER, FASTER PLANE FOR PRESIDENT.—A new super Constellation airplane for President Eisenhower, bigger and more powerful than the one he has been using, rests on the ground at National Airport in Washington after a flight to Denver where the Chief Executive inspected it. The new plane is 18 feet longer than the Columbine plane the President has been using and has a cruising speed of about 330 miles an hour, 50 miles faster than the former craft.

Patrol Urges Help In Child Safety Program

Things get done when people do them together, and this is especially true in the field of child traffic safety. If we are to keep our children safe in traffic, it's going to take the combined efforts of motorists, parents, and the children themselves," Cpl. E. W. Mallory of the Ohio State Highway here stated today in urging the cooperation of all the people in the community in making a success of the child traffic safety program this month.

The role of parents in this three-way safety effort is very important, the officer pointed out, for parents can regulate to a large extent the activities of their children, keeping them away from dangerous traffic areas when they are not under the direct supervision of an adult. Parents also have many opportunities to teach children good safety habits.

"One of the best ways to do this is by example, he pointed out. If parents — and all adults — are careful always to follow safe rules, it will do much to instill in children respect for and obedience to these rules."

The officer pointed out that children don't have adult judgment, however, and that even when they have the very best training they sometimes are going to be unpredictable in traffic situations.

"This is where the motorist must do his part," Cpl. Mallory said. "It is up to the drivers to be especially alert near schools and playgrounds, in residential areas, and any place children might be expected to gather."

At the same time children themselves must do the best they can to walk and play safely, observing the rules they have been taught, the officer explained.

"Schools are doing a fine job of teaching safety, from kindergarten right through high school," he said, "and the police do all they can to keep children safe on Salem's streets and highways. But if this child safety program is to become really effective — if we are to keep the tragic toll of child traffic fatalities from rising — we all must work together to accomplish our purpose."

Lucky Men Find Each Other's Lost Valuables

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Giles Hall lost his wallet and Pendleton R. Armstrong telephoned that he had found it on the beach.

Hall went to retrieve it yesterday. During the conversation Armstrong mentioned that when he found the wallet he was at the beach looking for an expensive cigarette lighter he had lost.

"Well," Hall remarked, "I found a cigarette lighter about the same place you found the wallet."

He produced the lighter. It was Armstrong's.

Famiy's Swimming Party Turns Into Bust

MONTEREY PARK, Calif. — The Jim Bright family planned to throw a neighborhood party last night celebrating completion of their swimming pool.

But the party was a bust. So was the pool, built above ground of concrete blocks. Water pressure caused one side of it to burst out with a roar yesterday, scattering the blocks.

But the Brights and their three children still have the do-it-yourself-spirit. They plan to build a barbecue pit from the remnants of the pool.

TELLS OF HOLDUP ROLE

PIQUA, Ohio — Dayton taxi driver Miles R. Arnold, 34, yesterday said he was forced to take part in a $763 restaurant holdup here. Arnold said a passenger, Edward Minnear, 42, of Indianapolis, threatened to "blow my head off" if he didn't participate. Arnold said he was forced to drive here where the Caserta Restaurant was robbed by two armed men. Minnear was arrested at nearby West Milton.

Leetonia Plays Louisville On Friday, Sept. 24

LEETONIA — Home football games are as follows: Sept. 24, Louisville; Oct. 22, Poland; Nov. 5, Sebring; Nov. 12, Newton Falls. Tickets are available at the Roosevelt Drug Store until Sept. 25. General admission tickets for the East Palestine game also will be available until game time.

Beachers on the east side of the football field have been newly painted. All seats that were considered unsafe have been replaced. These bleachers were originally built by members of the Community Booster Club. Approximately one-third of the wood on the bleachers was replaced this past week.

MEMBERS of the Leetonia Exempted Village School District met in special session Tuesday.

A bid was accepted from Dominic Dattilio, Leetonia Builders, to construct a wall across the boys' play room at the South Side building and tile the floor of this room so that it can be used for a classroom. This room will provide an additional classroom at the South Side Building to help relieve the crowded conditions. The majority of parents who have children in those grades which are crowded do not want children transferred to another building. The Board will spend over the school year approximately $4,000 in addition to budgeted expenses to fix up the classroom and employ an additional teacher.

Citizens of the community will be given the opportunity within the next year to vote for additional rooms for the school plant. What this will consist of will be known after a study is made of present facilities and future estimates of enrollment.

The Bureau of Educational Research, Ohio State University, will be asked to make a survey of the school district, present school facilities, enrollment, etc. The results of this survey will be given to the Board members and citizens at a later date, with recommendations.

LADIES AUXILIARY F.O.E. met

An automatic home washer and a clothes dryer sell for an average of $550.00 and can be expected to last for about five years. The weekly cost of soap, bleach, gas, electricity, water and water heating (not including water softening) averages about $2.08 without any allowance for payments on the machines, depreciation or repairs. The cost of the supplies and utilities for home laundering alone, using an automatic washer and an automatic dryer, without taking into account the machine cost, will provide 40 pounds of quality (commercial) wash, fluff dried, every week indefinitely, with no investment.

Unlearned Lesson

It has been 15 years since Poland was attacked by the Russian army. The assault began at 6 a.m. Sept. 17, 1939. The Poles already were fighting for their lives against a German assault that had started Sept. 1. The outcome never was in doubt. Poland was lost.

The Poles had relied on treaties to save them;
they had no military defense to withstand either the Germans or Russians. When their fateful hour came, their treaties were scraps of paper.
Great Britain and France declared war against Germany, but their gesture was futile. The Poles are still the prisoners of the Russians, who ended up on the Allied side in World War II and now are threatening to attack the Allies unless given their own way. Germany, meanwhile, has begun to dream of a military future again as the country once more holding the balance of power in Europe.

It must not be forgotten that Russia and Germany first joined together in a treaty pledging no aggression while they ruined Poland, then attacked each other when that seemed to be their best interest.

The lesson to be learned is that governments dominated by men who have been schooled in the cynicism of Old World politics have no sense of moral values. They are guided by expediency. They are interested only in their own survival, not in the supremacy of one ideology over another.

When Americans have learned this lesson,
there will be fewer disappointments awaiting
them in European balance-of-power politics.
They will have learned to expect only what is realistic and possible, instead of hoping in vain to achieve what is idealistic and desirable. If they are lucky they will have learned that the way to keep from being involved in World War III is to concentrate on plans to fight it, not on plans to avert it, unless the plans are based on the realities of Old World cynicism.

Citizenship Must Be Earned

Most of us in the United States were born into the status of citizenship. We had nothing to do with it.

Unfortunately, most of us have done nothing to earn what those who got U.S. citizenship
the hard way cherish as their most precious possession. This has become a weakness of the republic. There is no room in self-government for nominal citizens. All citizens need to work at the job.

Citizenship Day, which marks the Sept. 17
anniversary of the signing of the Constitution
by the men who drew it up in Philadelphia in 1787, is a good occasion to brush up on the job of being a citizen. The most direct way to do this is to read the Constitution, something millions of Americans whose lives depend on it have been too busy to do.

Packed into this most remarkable of all written statements of the right of human beings
to be men instead of slaves are all the fundamental truths that underlie the freedom and dignity of Americans. Without being aware of these truths and in full agreement with them,
no one can claim full status as a citizen of the United States. He is a parasite, contributing nothing to the freedom which supports him.
Have you read the Constitution lately?

Trio Of Hangers-On

Along with death and taxes, three of life's worries are grass clippings, corn silk and fish scales. Anyone who has ever mowed a lawn, husked corn or cleaned fish knows how the traces linger.

To eliminate the evidence of lawn mowing
you may wear cuffless trousers and take your shoes off outside the house, but later you will find grass clippings between your toes. You husk corn out in the backyard behind the shed
and later you find a strand of corn silk behind your ear. The day after you clean fish you find fish scales between your bed sheets.

The ubiquity of these three trademarks of household chores makes it entirely conceivable that someday when you go to your safety deposit box in the bank, there will be — guess what? A blade of grass, a strand of corn silk and one fish scale.

This One We Must Not See

It is just barely possible the proposed motion picture starring Zsa Zsa Gabor with her boy friend Porfirio Rubirosa in a prominent role may be a masterpiece. But it is not probable.

The couple has arrived in Frankfurt, Germany, to make the movie after the United States turned a jaundiced eye on Rubirosa's claim to being an actor as well as a playboy.

By and large, movies are great entertainment and we are for them. But if and when the Gabor-Rubirosa epic appears we expect to enjoy staying away from it. Just because a man and woman tear round the world like juvenile delinquents is no inducement for us to go see them in shadowland.

Time For Reflection

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Eisenhower Facing Crisis In Political Career

President Eisenhower has gone fishing for a few days—and maybe
it will give him a chance to do some thinking about the crisis that has come to his career.

For, as of today, it looks as if the American people, in the coming congressional election, are about to repudiate his administration in the middle of his term.

Abroad — under a parliamentary system — it would mean an enforced resignation. But in America when it sometimes happens
— as it did in the middle of President Truman's term — it merely means a realignment of political forces which may or may not bode ill for the party in the subsequent presidential election.

Eisenhower has had a curious indifference to politics. He has been led to believe by misguided friends that it is a sordid business from which he, as a former general and a nonpartisan, ought to stay aloof.

He has been advised by a coterie of advisers with more worshipful-ness than political sense that he is immensely popular and that all that's needed in the congressional election are a few television appearances and a magic smile.

The same group of advisers have been turning the cold shoulder toward the regulars in the party, accusing them of not being in ing a fallacious obsession about the importance of party organization, The Citizens - for - Eisenhower movement, for instance, was revived as a confession of distrust
as to the readiness of the independent voters to accept the Republican party itself.

THERE HAVE been, moreover,
some serious fights inside the party,
notably the McCarthy affair,
and all in all the traditional concern for party harmony has been dashed aside.

Eisenhower has not been living in a vacuum. He has noted in the press — if, indeed, he does read many newspapers — that there has been a battle on to discredit the Republican party. But the occasions have been few and far between when he has said a kind word for the party itself or taken the trouble to attack the record of the Democrats. Campaigns are not won by failing to remind the people of past mistakes of the opposition. They are won by both an offense and a defense — and the President himself has been weak
on the offense.

The first session of Congress accomplished little and the administration's strategy was to leave everything to the second session,
where a creditable job, to be sure,
was done. But prejudices by the voters are formed during the first year and a half, and it is a little late now to launch a public impression in six or eight weeks of a campaign. Most of the post - election studies conducted by scientific surveys show this to be true.
About 80 per cent of the voters
make up their minds long before the campaign begins.

Under The Weather

By NORMAN LINDHURST

A German scientist who has spent several years comparing two sets of reports has concluded that we're all "under the weather."

One report group comes from hospitals and gives hourly lists of "unusual" changes in patients' conditions. The other deal with hourly weather changes.

Based on comparisons made in more than 10,000 cases and microscopic meteorological analysis of such components as humidity, pressure and fluctuation, Friedrich P. Becker said today that weather is a perfectly valid alibi for emotional outbursts, forgetfulness, poor judgment and strange illnesses.

Becker, 44, and chief of the Medical Meteorological Institute
at Koenigsstein, a branch of the German weather service, said it is "probable" that weather changes have strong influence on the number of car crashes, for instance.

He testified last summer in Frankfurt concerning an Autobahn accident in which a man was killed.
The victim was riding in a car
previously in 20 years of driving had had an accident. The driver stated he could not remember what had happened just prior to the impact between his car and a truck parked on the road. The scientist based his answer on a

Judging by the Maine elections and the sensational drop - off in Republican votes, the Republicans face the dim prospect that they may lose as many as 100 seats in the House and also lose the Senate
by two or three seats.

PRESENT INDICATIONS are that a landslide is in the making against the Eisenhower administration. Only a political miracle and an aggressive personal fight
by the President himself might turn the tide. He cannot delegate
the task of winning this election to Vice President Nixon or to Speaker Martin or to Sherman Adams or to any of his staff. It's Eisenhower who must fight for his party, and that means bringing harmony to an already seriously divided party, so many of whose precinct workers of other years
act as if they themselves will go fishing on election day.

The facts about political conditions were told to the President in Denver the other day by the 19
members of the Midwest and Rocky Mountain State Chair-men's Association. Publicly they talked with optimism. Privately they were gloomy. They don't look for gains in Congress.

They feel they'll be lucky to hold their own and, judging by what they say about the specific situations in states that are supposed to be close, it would appear that the deluge is coming.

What the President has been told is that there is a general apathy within his party.

THE NEGATIVE vote — those who have grievances against the administration, either because of unemployment or the drop in farm income — is certain to reduce big Republican majorities in normally Republican states, but it is in the districts where the margin is narrow that there is little hope of victory.

It will not be of any help to have the Watkins committee reported filed and a special Senate session convened to hold an inquest on the alleged misconduct of a senator who has been fighting Communism and who happens now to be on trial for doing what never has been an offense before when other senators did or said the same thing.

To win this fall, all elements of the party will have to be urged to go to the polls. For the Republican vote is notoriously apathetic in large numbers, anyway. So something has to be done to enthusiasm the party workers — and Eisenhower will have to come up with some thoughts of his own on this when he is through with his fishing trip.

Otherwise, in November he will find that, if the party is defeated,
he will be regarded as still personally popular but as a political liability by a large segment of his own party — and this could mean a big Democratic victory in 1956.

A True Beacon of Our Liberty

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Paul Revere is only a distant
who rode a horse from Charlestown to Lexington through the night to Sokolsky

when we, children of immigrant parents, went to public school, when every school day began with the reading of a passage from the Bible and the singing of either
"The Star-Spangled Banner," or "America," Paul Revere was not only a living person but a serious problem because we had to memorize Longfellow's poem which began:

"Listen, my children, and you shall hear . . .
And then Paul Revere would ride
through the night:
"A voice in the darkness, a knock at the door,
And a word that shall echo forevermore!"

THESE WERE difficult words
for us, but we had already become accustomed to Longfellow and Whittier, William Cullen Bryant and Oliver Wendell Holmes. They seemed to us, in those days, especially made to be memorized and to Americanize the children of immigrants.

And so it came as a hurt to see in the newspapers a photograph,
after the big storm, of the steeple
of the Old North Church in Boston toppling over. That was the church where Paul Revere had lanterns placed,

"One if by land, and two if by sea . . ."

The fate of a nation was riding
that night . . .

Maybe that steeple was rotted through. Maybe the termites had eaten it or the pigeons had despoiled
it. We are careless in this country of our national monuments, although we are doing much better since the National Trust for Historic Preservation has been organized to stimulate an interest in them.

It is only during the past five years or so that the restoration and preservation of Independence Hall in Philadelphia has been undertaken on a satisfactory scale,
although Williamsburg in Virginia was restored before that.

Boston and the area about it, Concord, Lexington, Salem and many other places are teeming with historic sites, some well-preserved, some ignored and forgotten, or cared for by some diligent patriot who loves the symbols of a great past.

THESE SHRINES are symbols
of that spirit which Paul Revere displayed and even of greater events.

Too many Americans have really forgotten, if they ever knew, the heroism of the American Revolution. True, the British were far away and had to cross a dangerous ocean to hold and keep the thirteen colonies on our shores. And, as always, Great Britain was beset by continental enemies who were more than pleased by the diversion of troubles in the colonies.

But for the farmers of Massachusetts, the Revolution was a reality. It meant leaving much of the land to the women and old men and small boys; it meant a
years of privation; it meant quarrels within families; it meant wounded and dead. And then came the confusion of forming a new nation.

Wars are more personal than the politicians, who make them, like us to recognize.

And what aggravated many in those days was that they were not too sure that they wanted to be independent. That was always one of Washington's more severe problems, the Tories and the apathetic;
the lovers of the British crown,
and those who did not hate it.

BUT THERE WAS always a Samuel Adams to stir the spirit.
And there was always a Paul Revere, silversmith, to ride through the night, the hoofbeats of his horse clattering, seeming to say,
"The British are coming!"

And now a magnificent symbol of it all, the steeple of the Old North Church, has toppled over.
Symbols must not be permitted to topple. The Chinese believe that when a pagoda is blown away by an unfriendly wind, the forces of evil are upon them. And it is not an unkind superstition because it means that the husbandry of the nation has been inadequate and careless and that the gods are displeased.

Gov. Hester has accepted the chairmanship of the committee to rebuild that steeple. This symbol of the birth of our nation, of powerful initiative and magnificent courage, should not be forgotten.
It should be built strong to stand
as the beacon that it was.

Christmas Is Coming

By TRUMAN TWILL

Some people have a practical turn of mind. Some have a weakness for gadgets. It was seven years this Christmas that I got my first steam engine — a beauty that ran a dynamo which made enough electricity to light a bulb. The engine also blew a whistle.

My creative wants are few and easily taken care of — a pair of garned socks, shoes with good soles, a suit with no visible patches and a change of shirts. But my gadgetry wants are numerous.

I am crazy about address contraptions that pop open to the desired letter of the alphabet when you move a little indicator to the letter and push.

Also little monstrosities you carry in your pocket that open up to disclose bottle openers, knives,
files, awls, screw drivers, needles
and pliers.

Also toothbrush holders that play
a jolly tune when you lift the brush and keep playing until you put it back in the holder.

Plus cute and tricky devices for dealing out cigarettes with a flourish, especially the ones designed to be a little naughty.

Plus imitations of objects one does not expect to find in parlors
and which can be planted in parlors
to the squealing consternation of ladies.

And goofy stuff like that putty
which does all the things putty
isn't expected to do.

And the kind of mirrors they have in fun houses.

And contraptions for being comfortable while read in bed. Besides:

Devices for lighting fires, trick
lights of outlandish design, devices to forecast the weather, things to wipe and polish shoes, novel ways
for carrying keys;

Dinguses for washing automobiles and windows the hard way, hoot-nannies for the joy and comfort of motorists, anything that piles up or fits together in a "nest," kits that purport to contain everything needed for doing various chores;

Newly perfected whatnots for cleaning paint brushes, anything with built-in magnetic action, any type of household tool that will squeeze a lemon or crush a grape by applying some new principle to the task;

All kinds of automatic things for doing routine chores such as boiling eggs, obvious improvements on standard utensils such as a cocktail pitcher with a separate place for ice, things that fill long - felt needs like a quilted sack to hang over a bedside for storing magazines and orange peels;

Health aids like massaging machines, rowing machines, lamps to chase away aches and pains, electric sinus masks, foot pads, and all varieties of lotions and powders.

None of these would have occurred to me, except for one of those catalogs you find lying about that feature unusual gifts for Christmas.

Christmas? •
It will be time to think about
that before you sun tan has faded.
Don't try to be practical,
please, dear friends. Concentrate on nonsense. There's this new kind of towel with a built - in magnet,
see. You can throw it up against anything metallic and it will stick there. Stuff like that will be gratefully received.

Thoughts For Today

Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count
you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith
with power:—Thes. 1:11.

Prayer crowns God with the honor and glory due to His name, and God crowns prayer with assurance and comfort. The most praying souls are the most assured souls.

Once Over

TV And Big Winds

One thing proved by the recent big wind was that while a hurricane might do a sensational job on video, it cannot be depended on by talent scouts, and won't take directions. For the first time in history a determined attempt was made to do a hurricane on TV, but Edna was no Tullulah.

It was clear at all times that the big blow
would never be a pushover for a Godfrey of a Garroway and there was never a moment when anybody could believe that a hurricane would ever perform for Groucho Marx and follow instructions to say "Groucho sent me."

Complete arrangements, down to the smallest detail, were made by several channels to get Edna into show business, but she changed the song to "There's no business like BLOW business" and refused to follow any script, any plans or any director.

In fact, a couple of TV commentators were more terrorizing than the hurricane. (We were knocked flat several times by a Channel Eleven announcer, and a tree close to the window of our video room acted as if scared stiff by him. He was windier than Edna in our neck of the woods.)

The wind, however, just refused to act as TV talent is supposed to act. It seemed to us that every time the commentators switched to Coney or Rockaway to show the fury of Edna,
she walked off the stage, leaving fairly calm water, beachcombers taking an undisturbed stroll on the beach, and cars whooping along
the water's edge unperturbed and undamaged.

It was a good try, of course, by TV, but a hurricane is no bargain as a screen star. It ignores "The show must go on," and is one old trouper who cares nothing about the advance notices, the billing and audience reaction. It can be programmed but not relied on.

There were dozens of interludes where commentators gave Edna the cue line and she seemed to reply "You and your old TV fans, my eye! I am a hurricane, not a performer
on a quiz program or a ham actor in search of a place on a PANEL SHOW!"

Edna didn't give a darn about sponsors and any TV fan could see she would never do "er stuff for a cigarette, a lipstick, a dentifice, a cokenix or a beer. (We kept thinking of a brewery sponsor for a hurricane, using with dramatic effectiveness the one about watching the "BELT LINE".)

Hurricane, if is now known, can look any TV program in the eye and tell it where it can go. It cares nothing about what television did for Berle, Durante, Wally Cox or Tex Jinx. All of which is too bad. A hurricane could put a show of shows during a blow of blows, eclipsing all whodunits and westerns. One day
it may. But you can tie to this: it won't follow
a musical cue. All hurricanes will need proper TV titles from now on. "The Secret Storm" certainly won't do. How about "Trouble Or Nothing?"

We couldn't dig Mayor Wagner's recent TV interview in which he flatly challenged a statement that Inspector Goldberg, ousted in the bingo row, had a perfect 36-year record by exclaiming "Did he? I suggest you make sure by consulting the official record." And then said "Of course, I am not suggesting that there

Women Voters League's Work Traced As Season Is Begun

"The League of Women Voters is organized to encourage the participation of the individual citizen in his government in order to assure the success of democracy," stated Mrs. Thomas R. Howett, president, at the opening fall meeting of the Salem League of Women Voters Tuesday evening at the Public Library.

Mrs. Howett opened the meeting by welcoming approximately 50 members and guests. She explained that "the purpose of the League is to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government. The League is organized at local, state and national levels. Local groups, such as the Salem group, study governmental issues on all three levels."

Study items to be undertaken this year by the Salem League were described by several resource chairmen. Mrs. Lloyd Gordon outlined the voters service program proposed for the month of October; Mrs. Thomas A. Mercer outlined the proposed study of the public education system in Salem; Mrs. Elliott Hansell (assistant to Mrs. Frederick Koenreich, chairman) explained the proposed study of the State Board of Education; and Mrs. Paul Warrington of Damascus described the study item on county welfare.

Guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Rigby Mast, director of the Columbiana County Department of Welfare, spoke to the group about child welfare work and aid to dependent children. He outlined the function and organization of the of Welfare. He stated that prior to 1946 there was no organized program in the county for administering assistance to the needy, and that then no child welfare service existed at all on the county level. In 1946, however, Mr. Mast explained, the state organized and created a county department of welfare, non-political in nature and covering all aspects of public assistance. The Columbiana County Department of Welfare is assisted financially by federal, state and county funds. At the moment, Mr. Mast stated, approximately 200 children are under county care. Last year $49,000 was spent by the county on the child welfare program alone.

A question period followed Mr. Mast's discussion.

Tea was served to League members and their guests following the meeting. Mrs. James H. Wilson Jr. and Mrs. Lester Mellinger were in charge of the tea committee. Mrs. C. B. McConner, first president of the Salem League, and Mrs. A. Lanten Carter presided at the tea table.

Salem unit meetings will begin Sept. 30.

U.S. Denies Quitting Defense Of Korea

SEOUL (AP)—Withdrawal of four U.S. divisions does not mean South Korea is being abandoned, but that the United States can provide "a more effective defense of Korea and other free nations of Asia," the U.S. Embassy said today.

The statement by press officer Charles Davis seconded Gen. John E. Hull, Far East commander, who declared yesterday the withdrawal cannot "in any way be considered an abandonment of Korea."

Hull is here on a brief tour of inspection.

The embassy statement also declared that top Korean diplomats in Washington were told well in advance of plans to withdraw the four divisions.

It apparently was designed to counter South Korean charges that the decision was made without consulting the ROK government. Some officials also have accused the United States of abandoning South Korea to the Reds.

CARS SIDESWIPE

An auto driven by Rudolph Kloos of 210 W. 5th St., sideswiped the parked car of William J. Gallagher, 502 Arch St., at 12:15 yesterday on Sugartree Alley, police reported today. Both vehicles suffered minor damages.

Sales Tax Receipts Continue To Drop

Sale of prepaid sales tax receipts were lower in Columbiana County during the week ending Sept. 4 than for a similar period last year, figures released by State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy show.

During the week which ended Sept. 5, 1953, $34,179.04 was netted by the state from the sale of prepaid sales tax receipts in the county. For a similar week this year, the figure dropped to $31,748.75.

A comparison of the period from July 1 to date reveals a similar drop. The state received $255,760.63 from the county in that time as compared with the $208,891.66 paid during a comparative period in 1953.

Wesleyan Guild Meets At Hanzlicks

"Jesus' Concern for the Cities" was the topic for the program presented by Mrs. Robert Kaminsky and Mrs. John Buta at the Monday night meeting of the Methodist Wesleyan Service Guild in the home of Mrs. Walter Hanzlick of E. 9th St.

Fourteen members were present at the session opened with a poem read by the president, Miss Alice Whinery.

Announcements were made of the officers training school at Cadiz Sunday, Sept. 26 at 2 p.m. and of the bazaar, which will be held in the church Nov. 4 and 5.

As a special project, three boys in the service will receive greetings and other mail from members of the group.

Miss Eleanor McMurray gave a report of her recent trip to Bethesda.

Lunch was served by the hostesses, who were assisted by Miss Jean Olenhausen and Mrs. David Byers. The group will meet again Oct. 11.

Phillips Church Group Plans Skating Party

The Loyal Sons and Daughters Class of Phillips Christian Church will sponsor a skating party Oct. 4. Tickets are available from all members.

A class meeting will be held tonight when the teachers, Mrs. Ralph Huston and Mrs. F. L. Fay, will be hostesses at the Day home.

Snacks To Induce Milk Drinking

We all know that youngsters as well as parents would be better off if they drank more milk. Perhaps a few afterschool snacks to go with the milk would perk up the interest in better nutrition. Here are a few snacks used by Mrs. Joseph Forker, Mercerville, N.J.

Peanut Pickle Cornucopias

One cup finely chopped salted peanuts

1/4 cup mayonnaise

8 thin slices bread

8 sweet gherkin pickles

Combine chopped peanuts and mayonnaise; mix well. Trim crusts from bread and spread with peanut mixture. Place pickle diagonally on bread. Wrap bread around pickle to form a cornucopia; fasten with a toothpick.

Pickled Ham Sandwiches (Makes 2-3 sandwiches)

One 2 1/4 ounce can devilled ham

1/4 cup chopped sweet pickles

2 tablespoons mayonnaise

4-6 slices bread

butter or margarine

Combine devilled ham, sweet pickles and mayonnaise; mix thoroughly. Spread 2 or 3 slices of bread with butter or margarine, then with pickle-ham mixture.

Top with buttered slice of bread to make sandwich. Cut in quarters to serve.

Lisbon Social

Mrs. Kenneth Hiscox and Mrs. Jack Mills will spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. William P. Bye in Allen Park, Mich.

Mrs. Walter McCoy, N. Beaver St., entertained Club Associates on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Gerald Saunders and Mrs. Warren Nold were guests. Mrs. Joey Getz and Mrs. Harry Neal won first and second prizes. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Williams.

Roy Lewton returned Thursday from the Cleveland Clinic where he has been receiving treatments.

Mrs. Kenneth Clapsaddle, RD Lisbon, entertained the 20th Century Club Thursday evening at her home.

Mrs. Lloyd Armstrong is in a critical condition in Youngstown North Side Hospital. She underwent surgery Monday.

Tim Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barckhoff Jr. of E. State St., left Sunday for Providence, R.I., where he is enrolled in Brown University. The recipient of a scholarship from the Salem High School Alumni Association, Tim was second honor graduate in this year's graduating class.

Rose Drakulich and Shirleen Bowman of Salem and Esther Thomas of Youngstown, senior students at the Ohio School of Cosmetology in Youngstown, have returned from the Lester Coiffure Hair Fashion Show.

Recent guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Falkenstein of Perry St. were Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Van Der Hoeven of Curacao, Netherlands West Indies, who attended the International Congress of Pathology in Washington, D.C., last week and are now on a tour of this country to study hospital facilities. An exhibit on basic bacteriology at the congress was shown by Dr. Falkenstein.

LANG REUNION SLATED
The 24th annual Lang reunion will be held Sunday at Pavilion No. 2 in Centennial Park.

Naomi Shinn Troth Revealed At Party

The engagement and the date of the approaching marriage of Miss Naomi Shinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Shinn of the Benton Rd., to Harry McClintock, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McClintock of Confluence, Pa., was announced at a party Tuesday evening.

Mr. McClintock resides in Warren.

Hostesses for the miscellaneous shower affair were Mrs. Joseph Bush, Mrs. Calvin Filler and Mrs. Robert Rheutan and the guests were former members of the Christian Church Sunday School class taught by the honoree, and Mrs. Rheutan. The Bush home at Seaveken Lake was the party setting.

The announcement "Naomi and Harry — Oct. 9" was inscribed on papers hidden in individual potted plants which were the favors marking the places of the guests when lunch was served.

Miss Shinn found her gifts in a treasure hunt, taking her clues from directions on cards presented by her hostesses. Games entertained, with the prize going to Mrs. Don Schnurrenberger. An out-of-town guest was Mrs. Ralph Fuchs (Jane Butler). Letters were read and gifts received from other friends out-of-town.

During the evening movies taken years ago, when some of the girls were on a camping trip to Westville Lake, were shown.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Harvey Davis of Hawley Ave. spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bennett in Greenford.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sonagere of RD 2, Salem, returned home Tuesday after a three-month tour of Europe. Some time was spent in visiting relatives and on the way home they stopped in Canada.

Mrs. Harry Wilson of 218 E. 8th St., accompanied by Mrs. John W. Coleman of East Liverpool, have returned from Augusta, Ga., where they visited with Mrs. Wilson's son, John, who is stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga. Enroute to Georgia they visited Monticello and Natural Bridge, Va., and other places of interest, arriving home by plane.

Tim Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barckhoff Jr. of E. State St., left Sunday for Providence, R.I., where he is enrolled in Brown University. The recipient of a scholarship from the Salem High School Alumni Association, Tim was second honor graduate in this year's graduating class.

Rose Drakulich and Shirleen Bowman of Salem and Esther Thomas of Youngstown, senior students at the Ohio School of Cosmetology in Youngstown, have returned from the Lester Coiffure Hair Fashion Show.

Wedding of Leetonia Girl Attended by Salem People

People from the Salem area were in attendance at the wedding of Audrey Patterson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roy Patterson, who resided in Leetonia, and Calvin Erhardt Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Erhardt Sr. of Cincinnati.

The nuptial took place in the North Presbyterian Church in Cincinnati last Saturday, 7:30 o'clock. The minister performing the double ring service was Rev. J. K. Mitchell. Harold Patterson gave his sister in marriage at the altar where white flowers were used in the altar decor.

Roger Heather was organist, accompanying the soloist, Miss Marlene Erhardt, sister of the bridegroom, who sang "At Dawning," "Oh Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Complementing the bride's ballerina gown of French imported lace, over satin, was her bouquet combining stephanotis, sweetheart roses and a white orchid. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a cap of satin and lace. Miss Jeanne Glenn of Cincinnati carrying yellow mums, was maid of honor in a ballerina gown of rust-colored net over taffeta.

Attending Mr. Erhardt as best man was William Helwig of Cincinnati.

Ushers were Earl Patterson of Leetonia and Donald Patterson of Cincinnati, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Lloyd Holloway took her mother's place at her sister's wedding. She wore mauve with brown, and had a white rose corsage. Mrs. Erhardt's aqua costume was complemented by matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Among the more than 150 guests at the reception in the church social room were Salem area people, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holloway and Larry and Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Abel Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mix. A four-tiered wedding cake was served, guests from Cincinnati, Lansing, Mich., Salem and Leetonia.

When the couple left for their honeymoon which will include New York City and Niagara Falls, the bride was garbed in a gray orlon suit with red accessories. She wore the orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. Erhardt was graduated from Leetonia High School and Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing in Cincinnati. Mr. Erhardt is a graduate of Mt. Healthy high school in Cincinnati. They will make their home at 1477 Larann Ave., there.

The bridegroom's parents gave the rehearsal dinner and also received out-of-town guests at their home following the church reception.

The next regular meeting will be Oct. 6 in the temple.

Actress Turns 21, Gets $16,500 In Bonds

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Debra Paget, having turned 21, collected $16,500 in bonds from the county clerk yesterday.

As customary under California law, a court had ordered part of her earnings impounded and invested in bonds when she signed a film contract as a minor in 1949.

She said she's thinking of buying a home with the money but: "You can be sure I'm not going to rush out and spend it all at once."

Deming Cops Softball Championship By Downing Tool Twice

Bag 6-3, 10-3 Wins In Playoff

Ehrhart's Pitching, Balsley's 5 Hits Pace

Coming up with an unprecedented double-victory, Deming's became the 1954 Salem softball champions, sweeping a crucial twin-bill and a Salem Tool 6-3 and 10-3 on Friday at Kelley Field.

Deming held a one-game edge going into last night's action in the best-of-three series to decide the Double-A championship, but Deming's utility pitcher, Dave Ehrhart, pitched a sterling game in the first game and heavy hitting in the second and third games to earn the title last night.

Thus, as softball action in the city for this season passes into history, Deming's, (AA), Leetonia (A), and Georgetown (Girls') reign as champions.

Deming 6, Tool 3
Dave Ehrhart's brilliant 2-hitter led the way.

Dick Boughton singled home on Deming's tally in the first but Bill Herman's double knotted the count in the second. However, the winners iced the game with three runs in the third on Boughton's sacrifice fly and hits by Demps Balsley and Steve Cibula.

The two teams traded two-run outbursts in the seventh.

Balsley was the only batter to record two hits in this game. Bill Herman gave up but five hits in taking the loss.

Deming 10, Tool 3
A 12-hit barrage shelled two Tool hurlers and gave the Pumpers the crown.

The winners scored three runs in the first and four more in the third to knock Leo Kline out of the box and maintain an insurmountable 7-0 lead. Triples by Wayne Hahn and Steve Cibula, and Demps Balsley's two-bagger were the big blows. Ed Duco's single and Al Zoccolo's fly brought in the final Deming markers.

John Zines did the hurling for Deming's, allowing seven hits. Zines walked in one tally, Roelen's hit brought in another, while Roelen's double and a single by Bill Herman, who finished on the mound for Tool in the second game, rounded out the scoring.

Tom Cope and Roelen each had two hits for Tool while Wayne Hahn and Balsley notched three each for Deming's. Ed Duco, and Steve Cibula added two apiece. Balsley was the top hitter of the evening, going 5 for 8.

Big Games Pace First Weekend Of College Play

By TED SMITS
NEW YORK (AP)—The 1954 college football season opens tonight with two first rate games, but the big attraction comes tomorrow when highly regarded Oklahoma meets California at Berkeley in the television game of the day.

Oklahoma was a close second to Notre Dame in AP's pre-season poll of football strength, and California was 12th. The game will be one of the sternest tests of the year for Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Tonight however, comes two major games. Alabama the 14th-ranked team of the land faces Mississippi Southern, a little team that surprised last year by dumping Alabama 25-19. Southern California takes on Washington State. In what should be only a breather, powerful Mississippi faces North Texas State.

The 1954 version of football finds the rules unchanged, and the N.C.A.A. limiting television to one game each week, under A.B.C. sponsorship, except for a few regional Saturdays later in the season.

Notre Dame, under its new and youthful coach, Terry Brennan, is idle this week-end but next week meets Texas in a thriller. Notre Dame was voted first place in the AP poll this week.

Continuing the trend that began with the end of World War II, a flock of major games are scheduled for tomorrow, making this one of the earliest big football Saturdays of all Maryland, the national champion last year but ranked third for 1954, takes on Kentucky; Georgia Tech, another powerhouse, opens with Tulane; Baylor faces Houston; Rice meets Florida; Washington plays Utah, and Texas will be tested by Louisiana State.

Two of the flock of new coaches will make their debut tomorrow. Blanton Collier, former Cleveland Brown assistant, is directing Kentucky, and Andy Patney, who won his fame at Notre Dame, pilots Tulane.

In other games Saturday, Oregon meets Idaho in a Pacific Coast Conference affair; New Mexico has Brigham Young in a Skyline Eight battle, and Virginia Military plays host to Davidson in the Southern Conference.

Oklahoma A. and M., expected by many to win the Missouri Valley title, and Wyoming, a Skyline Conference contender, play at Lamar. Texas Christian journeys to Kansas, Drake plays Colorado, Iowa State meets South Dakota State, and Kansas State opposes Colorado A. and M.

In the south Georgia should not be troubled by Florida State, while Mississippi State meets Memphis State, Virginia Tech plays North Carolina State and Texas A. and M. tackles Texas Tech.

In far western games Stanford

Massillon Top-Rated Among Ohio Schools

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP)—This is sports salad week with a heavyweight title fight, a national golf tournament, numerous horse races, a torrid baseball scramble in the National League and a flock of college football games making up the dish.

Here are gilded winners of the weekend's football games:

Oklahoma over California: A football morsel that should have been saved for mid-season. But you will see it on your TV screen Saturday. Oklahoma has two outstanding ends in Max Boydston and Carl Allison. California's strong point is Matt Hazeltine, a defensive genius at center.

Maryland over Kentucky: Maryland is carrying on from last year while Kentucky is rebuilding. Dick Bielski of the Marylanders, moves into his own.

Texas over Louisiana State: Everything always is colossal in Texas but the 1954 Longhorn team is rated super-colossal. That should make it good enough to beat LSU, rated no better than average.

Georgia Tech over Tulane: Graduation took many of Tech's bevy of backs but Larry Morris, All-America center, is hale, hearty and eligible for another season.

Southern California over Washington State: Too early in the year for Washington State's sophomore crew. Southern California has a gee-whiz sophomore in Jon Arnett.

Rice over Florida: This could go to Florida very easily but believe Rice, defending Southwest Conference champions, have just enough left to win.

Baylor over Houston: Baylor is No. 2 team in Texas and Houston lacks tackles.

Oklahoma A&M over Wyoming: A meeting involving prospective champions of the Missouri Valley and Skyline Eight loops.

Kansas over Texas Christian: Had to flip a Lincoln penny to decide this one.

Alabama over Mississippi Southern: The Southerners threw a road block into Alabama's path last fall but the Tide swears it will get revenge Friday night.

Mississippi over North Texas State: The Rebels are rated one of the hottest teams in the South. The others, without comment: East—None.

Midwest—Colorado over Drake, Iowa State over South Dakota State, Kansas State over Colorado A&M.

South—Georgia over Florida State, Mississippi State over Memphis State, Clemson over Presbyterian, Virginia Tech over North Carolina State, Richmond over Randolph Macon, Virginia Military over Davidson, Texas A&M over Texas Tech.

Far West—Oregon over Idaho, Stanford over College of Pacific, UCLA over San Diego Navy, Washington over Utah, Denver over Colorado College, Montana over Fort Lewis, New Mexico over Brigham Young.

Indianapolis, Birds Win In AA Playoffs

By The Associated Press
Indianapolis and Columbus, first and fourth-place finishers in the regular American Association season, today held 2-1 leads in the first round playoff series.

The Indians, blanked for five innings, scored six runs in their last three times at bat to beat Minneapolis, 6-3, last night.

Columbus, taking a 5-0 lead after three innings, went on to beat second-place Louisville, 5-3.

Indianapolis and Minneapolis are idle today as the teams move to Minneapolis for the fourth game.

Tom Casagrande was Louisville's pitching selection for tonight's game at Columbus. The Red Birds will start Barney Schultz.

THURSDAY'S FIGHTS
PHILADELPHIA — Jimmy Soo, 135, Philadelphia, knocked out Baby Ray Jones, 138, Philadelphia, 2.

New Scoreboard To Be Dedicated

Boosters Will Present Gift To Salem High

Booster Club president John Pastier will make the official presentation of the new all-electric scoreboard at Reilly Stadium before the start of tonight's game to a member of the athletic committee of the Salem Board of Education during the dedication ceremonies.

The slated kickoff time of 7:45 will be held up for the presentation of the new board. The board was bought by the Booster Club and erected during the summer. New flood lights were wired this morning to make installation of the board complete.

The operating panel for the board will be located in a new addition to the press box completed today. The addition will house only the registered officials operating the board and a representative of each team.

HEAD SHS GRID coach Ben Barrett addressed the regular Booster members at their weekly meeting last night and said that tonight's game ought to be a tough contest between two good teams.

Barrett said that last week's scrimmage with Glad served its purpose and that many flaws that showed up during the session were ironed out this week.

Barrett also said that there was an exceptionally good turnout of freshmen this year. "We've got the biggest turnout of boys since 1950," he stated.

Faculty Manager Fred Cope has scheduled several games for the Salem freshman squad and for the reserves. The Reserves will meet the Goshen Varsity in a game at Sebring Saturday night, Sept. 25, at 7:45.

Beginning with tonight's contest, the Booster Club will provide a pint of chocolate milk for each member of the Salem squad and the visiting team, coaches and managers. The club last year bought milk for the basketball squads.

FRED COPE reported to the club that tickets to take the Quakers to see the Pitt - Minnesota game Oct. 2 had been ordered and he had been assured by the ticket manager that they would be sent.

In other action last night the club voted to donate $25 to the High School social clubs to spend on decorating the town on Thursday nights before the football games. Salem High students started the project last year and the club donated money to pay for wood, crepe paper and other materials.

Booster Club membership tickets are still on sale by any club member for $2 each. The club will have a stand at the game tonight where tickets may be purchased.

Klapak, James Duel At Canfield Saturday

The battle for the 1954 MARC Circuit championship continues at Canfield Speedway Saturday night. Heading the field will be Mike Klapak of Warren, and Bob James of Cleveland, currently running one, two, respectively.

There also will be at least 45 other drivers on hand for Saturday's eight-race card. Mike Little from Johnston, Pa., won two races in a row last weekend — at Canfield then at Sportsmen Park the following night.

At Canfield last Saturday, Roy Gemberling, Kent, placed second and Norm McCarthy, Bedford 3rd. Meanwhile, James and Klapak placed 13th and 14th respectively.

Klapak is far ahead in the Canfield point ratings, with Jerry Carver, Canfield; Bill Forney, of Boardman; McCarthy and Little also rated high.

McCarthy has shown the most improvement this year. Last season he was out of the top 20, but he's up near the top at the present time. Forney has also come into his own as a stock car pilot. Forney was 8th in 1954 and is currently second here. Forney placed fourth in the big invitational race at Detroit two weeks ago. That field included all of the leading drivers in the Midwest.

Carver was champion of Kitting track, which concluded its season last week.

Miami U. Names First Negro Football Captain
OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—The captain of the 1954 Miami University football team is Bob Bronston, 20-year-old senior fullback from Springfield, Ohio.

The 5 foot 11 inch star, who weighs 190 pounds, is the first Negro to be named head of the Redskin grid squad.

Bronston has maintained a scholastic average of "B". He made the varsity team as a freshman and in three years of competition has an average of 4.7 yards per carry.

Giants Increase Lead By Taking Braves Twice

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Beaming with pride over his pennant-bound New York Giants, Leo Durocher today called his 1954 league leaders a greater club than his 1951 miracle team that came from way behind to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers with the never-to-be forgotten finish.

The voluble little manager, gushing with good will and in a blessing-all attitude, lauded his Giants as the "gamest team that ever walked out on a field" following what probably was their happiest day of the season.

Combining brilliant pitching, a tight defense and timely hitting, the Giants twice whipped the Milwaukee Braves by 6-2 scores yesterday to sweep the three-game series and stretch their first-place lead over Brooklyn to 4½ games. A 9-3 defeat inflicted by Cincinnati upon the Dodgers helped the Giants pick up a game and a half in one afternoon.

As a result of yesterday's activities, the Giants can count their pennant chances on the fingers of one hand. The magic number is now five. Any combination of five Giant victories and/or Dodger defeats would clinch the flag for New York.

The game but hard-luck Braves, now 7½ lengths off the pace, are virtually eliminated. The combination there is three. In justice to the Braves, they played the entire series without the services of slugger Joe Adcock, their injured first baseman. In addition, Eddie Mathews was handicapped by the lame left leg, Bobby Thomson missed yesterday's twin bill because of his ailing ankle and Henry Aaron was out with a busted leg.

Only one other major league game was played. In that one, the New York Yankees prolonged their agony, defeating the Detroit Tigers 4-2 to keep their faint pennant hopes barely alive. They still trail the pace-setting Cleveland Indians by eight games with only nine to go. Cleveland also has nine games left.

Despite the Giants' big bulge, Durocher refused to make any brash pennant statements.

Joe Nuxhall, the only lefthander to beat Brooklyn at Ebbets' Field, did it again with a route-going 10-hitter. The Reds walloped five Brooklyn hurlers for 13 hits including home runs by Wally Post, Bobby Adams and Ted Kluszewski. It was Kluszewski's 49th. Only three National Leaguers — Hank Wilson (56), Ralph Kiner (54) and Johnny Mize (51) have hit more in a season.

BERLIN CENTER — Forest Baker, 10, of RD 1, Berlin Center, died at the Salem Clinic Thursday at 9 p.m. following an illness of five months.

He was born March 4, 1944, at Sebring, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Baker. He lived in this vicinity nine years, formerly residing in Sebring.

He is survived by his parents; two sisters, Mrs. Chiquita Baxter and Marilyn Baker of the home; two brothers, Duane Baker and Paul Baker Jr., all of the home; and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Wright of RD 2, Beloit.

Funeral service will be Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Cassaday - Turkle Funeral Home in Alliance with Rev. James V. Ingram, pastor of Bethel Reformed Church, officiating. Burial will be in Mottown Cemetery, near Deerfield.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday from 7 to 9 p.m.

ion College, and attended Ohio State University and the University of Maryland. She was a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority at Mt. Union.

Mrs. West taught in Alliance public schools two years; was head of the history department in Laurel, Md., High School, and worked for the U. S. Government eight years in the treasury and agriculture departments.

She is survived by her husband, Paul A. West of the home; a daughter, Mary Paul West; and two sons, William James West and Richard Weaver West, all of the home; her parents, and a sister, Mrs. F. E. Hall of Albuquerque, N. Mex.

Funeral service will be Monday at 2 p.m. at Cassaday - Turkle Funeral Home, Alliance, with Rev. E. K. Bars, and Dr. Joseph E. Henderson, pastor of the Alliance First Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Fairmount Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Paul A. West

Mrs. Catherine Weaver West, 45, of Damascus, died Thursday at 5:28 a.m. at the residence of her parents, 209 S. Arch St., Alliance. She lived in this vicinity 36 years, formerly residing in Niles, Maryland, Washington, D.C., and Virginia. She had been ill since February.

Born in Niles Nov. 12, 1908 she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Weaver.

She was a member of Damascus Methodist Church, was a graduate of Alliance High School and Mt. Union.

Charles Zimmerman Sr.

BERLIN CENTER — Charles J. Zimmerman, Sr., 53, of Duck Creek Road, Berlin Center, died at the Salem Central Clinic this morning at 3:15 of a cerebral hemorrhage following an illness of nine months.

He was born Aug. 27, 1901 in Youngstown, the son of George L. and Ida Anderson Zimmerman.

He lived in Berlin Center for the past eight years, coming from Canfield. For the past 34 years, he had been associated with his brother, Irwin, in the grocery business in Boardman.

He was a member of the Zion Lutheran Church of Cornersburg. He leaves his widow, the former Bertha Miller of Canfield whom he married March 14, 1922; one son, Charles J. Jr. of Berlin Center, one daughter, Mrs. Roy Bowman of Canfield; six grandchildren; two brothers, Irwin L. of Boardman and George L. Jr. of Canfield; three sisters, Mrs. George W. Blunt of Canfield; Mrs. W. Frederick Thomas of Youngstown and Mrs. Norman Gleckler of Poland.

Funeral services will be held on Monday at 2 p.m. at the Williams Funeral Home in Canfield where friends may call Sunday evening from 7 to 9. Burial will be in Cornersburg Cemetery.

Rev. Donald Alber, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, will officiate.

Donald Schukert

Donald Schukert, 7, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rosta of 223 W. Pershing St., died Thursday at Gallopis State Institute of injuries received in a fall at the institute three weeks ago.

Surviving him are his parents, six sisters, Mrs. Howard Fowler and Mrs. Ralph Spencer, both of Salem, Mrs. Frank Seheval of Tulsa, Okla., and Rachel, Sandra and Joyce Schukert of Salem; and three brothers, William, Patrick and David Schukert at home.

The body is at the Waugh Funeral Home in Gallopis where the funeral will be Saturday. Burial will be in Gallopis.

LAKE MEETING SET

Members of Faith Court, Order of the Amaranth and their families will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Horton and Mrs. Mrs. Lester Lydia at a covered supper and wiener roast Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at Diehl Lake. A program of games will follow. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service.

BIG TILT — It will take some ingenious thinking on the part of the workers to solve this housing dilemma. The accident occurred near Moundridge, Kan., when the rear wheel of the trailer broke through the planking of the bridge spanning Emma Creek. Only one corner of the house remains imbedded in the creek bank, saving it from possible disaster as the creek flows beneath it.

Apple Growers Urged To Sell Only Top Fruit

An appeal by local apple growers and fruit specialists for Ohio growers to market only their top grade apples, was voiced Thursday during the annual Columbiana-Mahoning County apple tour of area farms.

Jerome Hull, Canfield fruit and turkey farmer, recommended that growers market only U. S. No. 1 apples for fresh market, and sell the rest for processing.

About 4½ million bushels of apples were ruined by the two hurricanes which hit the Eastern states, according to Howard Wells of McArthur, O., president of the Ohio Apple Institute. The storms spoiled what would have been a record apple crop, he said.

Orchards owned by Henry Sieke of RD Lisbon, E. F. Sanor of Knox Township, and Wilms Nursery near Salem were visited by about 60 growers.

A panel discussion on packaging and marketing of apples was held during the night program at Wilms. Taking part were Wells, Hull, Dan Simmons of Rogers, Wesley Windisch of the Ohio Bureau of Markets, Karl Kahler of the Ohio Retail Merchants Assn., and W. J. Kemper of the Fisher Food Co., Cleveland.

Vernon Patterson, Ohio State University horticulturist, moderated.

ity for the wage earner and the farmer" is the main question on which he thinks the voters will decide that they want a Democratic Congress.

James Ronan, Illinois state chairman, professed to see "a definite trend coking" in his state for the Democrats. He said this was based on what he said was dissatisfaction among the farmers over the Eisenhower administration's flexible farm price support program and unemployment in the coal mining and farm implement industries.

Stevenson To Speak

As they rallied here for a campaign kickoff meeting to be keynoteed by former Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, Democrats displayed uniform optimism over their chances of capturing both the Senate and the House in the November balloting.

Stevenson will speak tomorrow night at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner at which Mitchell expects to read a message from former President Truman.

Mitchell, who has said he will quit as national chairman after the Nov. 2 election, said he thinks the Democrats may gain 40 seats in the House, where there now are 218 Republicans, 213 Democrats, one independent and three vacancies.

But the national chairman said that, as of now, the battle for control of the Senate "looks awfully close and has not been settled yet." In the Senate there are 48 Republicans, 47 Democrats and one independent.

Hanoverton Youth Meeting Is Sept. 21

HANOVERTON — The next meeting of the Country - Side Youth Center is scheduled to be held in the Farmers Bank here Tuesday evening, Sept. 21.

At that time Lee Bowman, manager, will trace the handling of a commercial check from the time it is presented to the bank for payment until it is returned to the writer in its cancelled form.

Frank Zehentbauer, president of the Center, urges members to attend this meeting promptly at 8.

Janet Reeder, chairman of the refreshment committee, and Jim Wilson, chairman of the entertainment committee, have obtained the use of the Hanoverton Christian Church Annex for a short social and refreshment hour which will be held immediately following the youth meeting at the bank.

Charge Father Got Son, Aged 9, Drunk

NILES — The father of a grimy nine-year-old boy found staggering through the East End is being held by police on complaints that he gave the youngster wine and beer to drink.

The 65-year-old father was found in a drunken stupor in his home after patrolmen investigated a complaint from neighbors that "there is a drunken kid wandering around the neighborhood."

The boy, dirty and barefooted, wearing filthy jeans and a T-shirt was taken to the police station. He staggered into a corner and fell asleep.

Patrolmen said the child "reeked of beer and wine." The father denied having supplied the drinks and insisted that "the boy is just putting on an act."

HELD ON TRAFFIC COUNT

George Sharp, 62, of 669 Franklin St. was arrested at 11:25 p.m. Thursday on Ohio Ave. and charged by police with drunken driving and resisting arrest.

Convict Admits Slaying Story Was Only Hoax

MCALISTER, Okla. (P) — A life term convict who signed a "confession" in the 14-year-old slaying of a Penn State coed has admitted that the entire statement was a hoax.

Jack Ray told a newspaper reporter from his cell in the state prison here yesterday that his lurid story of a dope ring, wild parties and illicit love at State College, Pa. came only from his imagination.

The 34-year-old convict said he had read a story of the Rachel Taylor slaying in a detective magazine and had carefully planted "tips" that he knew something about it with other prisoners, knowing they would reach officials. He said he concocted the scheme in hopes of getting a release from a life term for another murder he also claims he did not commit.

Ray's admission that his 60-word statement was a hoax means the 1940 slaying of 17-year-old Rachel Taylor, of Wildwood, N. J., remains unsolved. Several times before, hopes of Pennsylvania authorities had risen on the basis of other "confessions" — but none was so elaborate or detailed a Ray's.

The slender, pale convict had claimed he beat Miss Taylor to death with a 45 calibre automatic to obtain a letter that implicated him in a dope ring.

Deputy Sheriff Abner Dear, of Pittsburg County announced the confession Tuesday after he said he had worked on the case for six months. Dear said he had received a tip from behind the walls of the prison.

Pennsylvania authorities, from the outset, proceeded cautiously in investigating the reported confession. None of the names listed by Ray checked against the extensive records of the crime.

Even before Ray admitted his hoax, Cpl. Howard Hancock of the Pennsylvania state police said the statement "isn't holding up good at all."

Ray said his reasoning was that his story of the Pennsylvania slaying might help him to get a lie detector test.

"I thought if I could prove I was innocent of the Pennsylvania case, the test would show I was innocent of that shooting at Cordell," Ray said.

He referred to a 1939 slaying of a Cordell, Okla., man, George Goodman, for which Ray already has served 14 years on a life term.

At State College, Police Chief John R. Juba said "We were almost positive from the start that the story was false."

Authorities have been investigating the slaying almost continuously during the past 14 years. More than 3,000 persons have been questioned.

Jailed In Attempt To Take Over Niles Bar

NILES — Four would-be muscle men said to have attempted to take over a cafe from the owner are being held by police without charge.

They were arrested at a midnight meeting with the owner of the beer-and-wine spot after he told police.

The proprietor of the Broken Drum Tavern in E. Federal St. told police that men, 21 to 26, had issued an ultimatum.

"We're taking over," they declared blandly. "We'll give you 5 per cent and you step out." They asserted that "we got it fixed with the police and we're going to start serving whiskey over the bar and run a game upstairs."

Vern Stephens Quits

BALTIMORE (P) — Vern Stephens has given up playing for the season and the veteran third baseman is ready to receive offers of managing.

Stephens left the Baltimore Orioles yesterday. Manager Jimmie Dykes agreed that an ankle he hurt would keep him out of the last eight games anyway. Stephens will be 34 next month, but has played 14 years in the majors and three in the minors.

offering a bribe. The hearing will also weigh Lamb's contentions.

The technical issue is Lamb's application for renewal of the operating license of his television station at Erie, WICU. If the accusations against Lamb are true, the commission says, that would indicate he filed false information with the commission in past denials of similar allegations.

In testimony yesterday, Cummings told Examiner Herbert Sharfman he heard Lamb described as a "very good friend of the Communist Party" by Joe Friedman, then chairman of the Lucas County (Toledo) Communist organization.

The occasion, he said, was the dedication of Lincoln House in Toledo, called the Lucas County party headquarters, on Sept. 18, 1944.

Friedman, he continued, introduced Lamb as one of the main speakers and referred to him as "Comrade Lamb."

Dulles, Churchill, Eden To Confer

Discuss New Plan For Rearming W. Germany

LONDON (AP) — John Foster Dulles flew into London today for hurried talks with Prime Minister Churchill and Anthony Eden on Britain's new plan for rearming West Germany.

The British foreign secretary met the U.S. secretary of state soon after Eden reported for 90 minutes to Churchill and the Cabinet on his own flying tour of West Europe to drum up support for his plan.

Dulles flew here from Bonn, where he conferred with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer on German sovereignty and rearmament.

In a joint airport statement in Bonn, Dulles and Adenauer made no specific mention of Eden's plan to link a rearmament West Germany to the Brussels Pact and NATO.

They said instead that West German sovereignty should be "restored with all speed." They added that Germany's participation "in full equality in the system of collective security" should be considered as "soon as practicable with the other interested governments, and following a NATO ministerial meeting, should be translated into concrete action."

Eden told reporters last night he had reached a "wide measure of agreement" in his talks with the leaders of France, Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, Italy and West Germany.

But he cautioned that the "practical aspects of the enterprise are far from simple. . . . A good deal of work remains to be done before a solution can be presented to the world."

The main hurdle Eden faces is to try to reconcile French anxiety for controls over German rearmament with U.S.-backed German demands for full sovereignty.

The British plan for rearming West Germany was drawn up after the French National Assembly killed the European Defense Community Treaty to set up a six-nation unified European army. It hinges on two main points:

1. Bringing the Germans and Italians — both wartime enemies — into a streamlined version of the 1948 Brussels alliance of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Each ally would be pledged to aid another under attack, and the new grouping would form a basis for promoting the political unity of Western Europe.

2. Giving the Germans full membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization subject to certain safeguards designed to block runaway German rearmament. These safeguards would aim at stopping the Germans from making atomic and hydrogen bombs and other weapons of mass destruction. They also would limit the size of German forces and generally ward off any chance of new German aggression.

Eden said that details of the proposed alliance would be taken up at a conference informants said would be held in London in about two weeks. Representatives of the seven West European nations are slated to attend along with the United States, Canada and possibly Norway and Denmark.

If this conference produces agreement, a special session of the NATO Council of Foreign Ministers will be called to take the decision on admitting the Germans to the North Atlantic Alliance.

Governor Exits From Match With Alligator

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Downright disrespectful alligator taught Gov. Lawrence Wetherby a lesson: It's easier to wrestle with politics than reptiles.

The governor was attending the Kentucky State Fair yesterday when he was invited to go one round with the 20-year-old, 8-foot, 175-pound critter, a feature of the water show.

After noting that the reptile's mouth was tied, Wetherby grabbed it under the chin and twisted. The alligator did a somersault, landed on its belly and began lashing out with its long tail. Forsaking dignity, the governor jumped.

And he leaped again when the critter let fly with a second swing. That ended the performance. The governor decided he'd rather drive an ostrich. He did that last year at the fair.

Ex-POW To Testify At His Courtmartial

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Cpl. Claude Batchelor was scheduled to testify today at his general court-martial on charges of collaborating with the enemy and informing on fellow prisoners while in a Communist prison camp.

The 22-year-old Texas soldier was one of 23 American prisoners who decided to stay with the Reds when the prisoner exchanges in Korea started. Later he and Cpl. Edward Dickinson of Virginia changed their minds and were repatriated.

Atty. Joel Westbrook, Batchelor's civilian counsel, also indicated yesterday he would ask the general court — martial panel to inquire into Batchelor's sanity during the months he was a prisoner of the Communists.

Five former POW's in Korea testified yesterday Batchelor interceded with the Chinese to get better conditions in the camp in which they were held.

Man Charges $5 Stolen From Bible

CINCINNATI (AP) — Heywood Dorsey swore out a warrant yesterday, charging Frederick Gray, 41, stole $5 from a hiding place in his Bible.

The bill, Dorsey said, was placed on a page containing the 10 Commandments.

That Extra Something

By RELMAN MORIN
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—It could be that have been just another pretty girl the various "Miss Something" contests are going to make some change in the outlook of that fair creature, the American woman. They certainly prove that if a girl wants the extras in life, beauty isn't enough.

Object example: the new "Miss America." Miss Lee Ann Meriweather is a very fetching lass, indeed. But without her other talents and qualifications, she would blonde and beautiful. "But there were any number of better looking girls in the finals of the contest," she says. "I wouldn't have stood a chance on that basis."

That's getting a little ahead of the story, however.

Until a few months ago, Mrs. Jennings was a housewife, just like you, ma'am. Her husband is a chemist. They have an 8-year-old son. She cooked and cleaned and washed and ironed and performed all the usual homespun chores.

Incidentally, she says her housework takes an average of two or three hours a day, and she thinks that should be par for the course in any well-managed home. (I'm only reporting what she said, ma'am, just the facts, ma'am.)

Anyway, she wanted something more—travel, for instance. So she entered the contest. "I was so excited by the idea that I phoned my husband and told him what I wanted to do. He just laughed and said it was all right with him. Neither of us really thought anything would come of it."

In some ways, the "Mrs. America" contest is the toughest of them all. Judgments are made not only on the basis of intelligence and personality. They emphasize homemaking qualities.

Mrs. Jennings is of Norwegian descent but the favorite-dish recipe she submitted for a regional judging was that delectable Italian creation, pizza!

In addition, she had to submit an essay on homemaking and community service. There were the usual competitions in better living. Last May, at Ellinor Village, Fla., she defeated 50 other finalists for the title.

"My husband was shocked," she said. "Neither of us could believe it."

Prizes showered down. She has been on television and radio programs, met celebrities, traveled all over the country. A month's trip to Europe, with her husband, is on the schedule.

The contest also led her to something else she wanted, a part-time job doing television commercials. "I think every housewife should have an interest, some form of occupation, outside her home," she says.

Will it seem like Cinderella at midnight when the year ends? She laughed. "I've been Mrs. Jennings for nine years—one year isn't going to change me."

Well, here is a housewife who wanted some extra dividends from life and now she has them.

But it took more than beauty. End advance for PMS Friday Sept. 17

NOT QUITE ENOUGH STEAM — Paul Tusek, of Power Point, Ohio, rounds a hairpin turn under full steam during hill-climbing tests of the Edinburgh-Goodwood ancient car race in England. Paul's 1906 Stanley Steamer, only steamer entered in the Anglo-American Vintage Car Rally, made best performance of all the climbers, but ran out of steam 10 miles from the finish at Goodwood, England.

Winona

WINONA — Forty were present at the Mrs. Roscoe Stanley home when Mrs. Lawrence Osborn of Costa Rica was honored at a stork shower. Mrs. Foster Hall of RD. Alliance was in charge of games. Among those present were Mrs. Osborn's mother, Mrs. Jesse Starbuck of Barnesville, and sister, Mrs. Carl Smith and daughter, Sharon of Adena. Others were present from Costa Rica, Kansas, Pennsylvania, Damascus, Salem and Columbiana.

Mrs. Osborn and son Donald are visiting her aunt, Miss Mary Starbuck in Salem.

The local young people that left here Monday to attend the Friends Boarding School at Barnesville are Gladys Satterthwaite, Melva Outland and James Gamble.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Martha Edgerton were her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Schoeni and Gayle and Linda of Sebring, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edgerton of RD. Salem.

The Winona L.T.L. met Saturday afternoon with director Mrs. Lena Megraill. President June Geary presided and was in charge of devotions. Mrs. Riley used a flannelgraph in a talk about Daniel. June and Fae Geary will be hosts to the group on Saturday, October 2.

The Christ Mission Truck will call in Winona Saturday October 2. Sunday evening dinner at the Mr. and Mrs. Lon Burcaw home was planned as a celebration for the birthdays of Mr. Burcaw and Glen Moffett. Others present included Mrs. Moffett and Kathie and Penny of Sevaeken Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dauling of Lisbon and Mary Lou and James Harris.

Miss Emma Holloway of Brooklyn, N.Y., spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Oliphant. Mr. and Mrs. Oliphant entertained at dinner Sunday honoring Miss Holloway. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. George Stratton of Flushing, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Oliphant and sons of Rogers, and Mr. and Mrs. William Heacock and family.

There were 24 present when Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Baunach were hosts to Farm Forum Council Saturday evening. Mrs. Baunach, president, conducted the meeting.

Mrs. Orlan Weingart was in charge when the group worked on state, county, and local resolutions. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stamp plan to be the October hosts.

In celebration of their eighth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. John Rudelbeck entertained at dinner Sunday. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Deane Price of RD. Lisbon, Miss Lida Dodson of Laybrook, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, Jimmy and Mary Louise of St. Jacobs Church.

loway and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holloway.

Oxygen Ten Helps Ailing Bull Recover

OLD WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP)—A Black Angus bull valued at $50,000 is getting back on his feet at the C. V. Whitney farm—thanks to the aid of an oxygen tent.

The bull, known as Ankonian 3263, could sire 1,000 calves a year. The farm's general manager, Ivor Bolding, says that accomplishment and "other reasons" account for the animal's high price tag.

Ankonian came down with pneumonia last Saturday and on Monday was put into an oxygen tent where, until yesterday, he used up six $15 tanks of oxygen daily. Penicillin and aureomycin also were administered.

Early today a farm spokesman said the bull "has passed the crisis" but is still under treatment in his barn.

It costs $2 per day to hire a camel at Bou Saad, Algeria.

Jane Parker BREAD

THE QUALITY LOAF MADE BETTER FOR BETTER HEALTH

FACT 1 TRULY FRESH!

"Squeezing" may fool you because softness is not a true test of freshness. But with Jane Parker Bread there's no need to "squeeze", no need to guess — just look at the date!

The date on the wrapper is your guarantee of "proven-fresh" flavor. This is important because when freshness fades, flavor fades.

FACT 2 EXTRA NOURISHING!

Jane Parker White Bread is ENRICHED for better nutrition, like all modern breads.

The complete list of health-giving nutrients, including generous amounts of Sunshine Vitamin D and healthful calcium, proves that penny for penny Jane Parker gives you more vitamins, calcium, iron and protein than any other of America's 10 leading brands!

FACT 3 GUARANTEED TOP VALUE!

Maybe you don't quibble about pennies when it's quality you want. Fine. But why pay more than you have to?

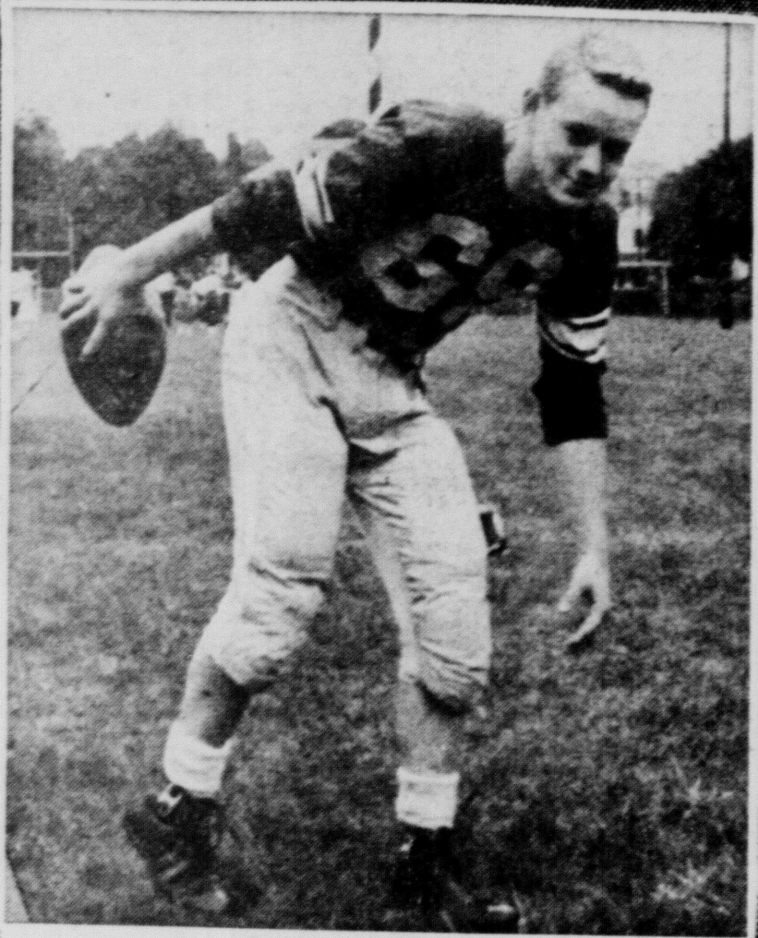

Jane Parker makes no exaggerated claims, uses no secret formula. Its goodness and high nutritional value springs only from the use of fine ingredients, properly blended and baked.
